Subject: Request to file an income tax and benefit return

We are writing to you because we have not received your income tax and benefit return for the tax year shown above.

Filing a tax return is key to getting your benefits and credits. Also, you must file a tax return if you owe tax. For more information, you can refer to the "Before you start" section of the General Income Tax and Benefit Guide each tax year, under "Do you have to file a return?"

Complete and send your return to the Canada Revenue Agency within 30 days of this request. For filing options and online services, such as NETFILE and My Account, go to canada.ca/cra-get-online.

If you are filing a paper return, mail it to:

WINNIPEG TC
66 STAPOM RD
Winnipeg MB R3C 3M2

Call us at:

Calls from Canada and the United States: 1-800-704-8480
Calls from any other location: 1-613-221-3061

If you do not file your return, we can assess your tax payable under subsection 152(7) of the Income Tax Act.

Please note that if you owe tax and do not file your return on time, we will:

- apply a penalty to your late-filed return; and
- charge interest on all amounts owing, starting the day after your return was due.

Interest is compounded daily, and the penalty may increase if a penalty was also applied within the three previous tax years.

If you need more information or forms to file your return, go to canada.ca/taxes-individuals or call 1-800-959-8281.

Contact us if you already filed your return, or need more information about this notice.

Thank you,

Bob Hamilton
Commissioner of Revenue

Hello Chris,

Via facsimile 250.770.4415

With regard to your telephone call yesterday, in my capacity as the legal representative for the taxpayer account, please be advised that the mailing address for this person is unchanged.

With respect to your offer, to provide additional information to your file, I will accept on the condition you provide to me a certified true copy of your signed and sworn oath of office ~~allegiance~~ within 30 days.

At which point the document is verified, and your intentions to act in good faith are clear, I will be happy to arrange a private meeting with yourself and or attend to your office to retrieve any documents you may have for the person.

Sincerely,

Steven James Merrill Sui Juris

Hello Chris,

I am writing again in my capacity as the legal representative for the taxpayer account STEVE MERRILL.

On November 16th, 2018 I did deliver a notice pursuant to your previous offer to provide additional information to your file (S). This notice included a demand for you to produce a certified, true copy of your Oath of Office.

It has been 30 days since my notice of Nov 16th, and to date, I have not received by mail, facsimile, or by hand, a certified, true copy of the document.

If your failure to produce and deliver to me a copy of your Oath of Office is an error, a mistake, an oversight, or otherwise unintentional, I will provide an additional seven (7) days for you to do so, as required by law.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Pagette,

I am writing to clarify the record following the disruptive end to our conversation of last Wednesday Jan 30th, 2019.

You indicated on Wednesday that you received my two notices of November 16th and December 17th, 2018, wherein I first accepted, with one condition, your invitation to provide information on behalf of the taxpayer STEVE MERRILL, and then reminded you of your silence. I will submit that you committed a default on your invitation or offer by remaining silent, effective December 24th, 2018. It is your duty to speak.

I will also submit that the intent of your visit last Wednesday, with envelope in-hand, was to extend a new invitation or offer on behalf of Her Majesty and or CANADA, and that despite the envelope being abandoned and left atop a public sidewalk, it likely contained an invitation, request, or quasi demand to provide information on behalf of the Person Resident STEVE MERRILL, Officer-Taxpayer #634981708. I will acknowledge your service of this invitation or offer, despite its sloppiness, if you can acknowledge that I am the man who may choose to act in the capacity of guarantor, signor, bearer, agent, or legal representative of the entity STEVE MERRILL.

If we can agree that I am a man and not a fiction, I will accept your latest offer, in my capacity as the representative for STEVE MERRILL, on the condition that you provide to me within 30 days a certified true copy of your oath of allegiance to Her Majesty and or CANADA. This document will confirm who you are, and of your intent, and of your duty to act in good faith.

In the event it is not you who has extended (signed) the invitation or offer, but a supervisor or other assign, agent, or employee acting on behalf of Her Majesty and or CANADA, please also include a certified true copy his or her oath of allegiance to Her Majesty and or CANADA.

Respectfully,

Steven James Merrill, su. juris
